KELLOGG AT HELM
OF SHIP OF STATE

Oath Administered To
Hughes' Successor
By Justice Butler

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 5—Frank B. Kellogg was sworn in today as secretary of state, succeeding Charles E. Hughes, who had held the post for past four years. The oath was administered at the state department at 9:30 by Associate Justice Butler, of the supreme court, who, like Mr. Kellogg, is a Minnesotan.

There was no speech making and Secretary Kellogg turned first after he had been sworn in to exchange hand-clasps with Justice Butler and Mr. Hughes.

An informal reception, during which Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg, mingled with the little group of invited guests, followed after which the secretary was escorted to the big desk in the office of the secretary of state to begin his duties.

Within 15 minutes after Mr. Kellogg had taken the helm, which had been held by Secretary Hughes, through four of the most eventful years in American diplomatic history, Mr. Hughes had left the state department to complete his preparations for sailing Saturday for Bermuda where he expects to spend several months before resuming his practice of law in New York.

CHAIR IS TARGET OF CRITICISM

Change In Rules Of the Senate Regarded
As Unlikely

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 5—Vice President Dawes took on the senate today in a first and inconclusive 15 minute round, surcharged with the electricity of eager expectancy.

There was an explosion or two over the manner in which the new presiding officer had cut corners at the expense of time honored senate customs, upon his inauguration yesterday, but when a recess was taken until later in the afternoon the row had not yet reached an acute stage.

Throughout the quarter hour session Mr. Dawes, himself, kept perfectly quiet, except when in a low pitched voice that scarcely reached the far corners of the chamber, he put two prefatory motions and announced the result.

During the short time he was in the chair, however, the vice president was the target of a sharp criticism for his manner of cutting short the swearing in of new senators yesterday, delivered by Senator Ashurst, democrat, of Arizona, who emphasized his speech by shaking a forefinger at the chair, heard Senator Reed, democrat of Missouri, demand that the official record of what was done yesterday be examined again by the senate, and listened to an explanation by Senator Hale, republican of Maine, who took upon himself all blame for the Vice President's failure to return to the chamber yesterday after he had witnessed the inauguration of President Coolidge.

Republican and democratic leaders, virtually were unanimous in the opinion there will be no change in the rules to meet views so vigorously expressed yesterday by the new vice president.

While a number of senators have, for some time, have favored modification, all efforts to that end in recent years have been unsuccessful.

Chairman Curtis, of the rules committee, sought a year or two ago to get an amendment that would make limitation of debate possible under certain conditions, but he recalled today that the proposition got just three votes.

Senators pointed out today that Mr. Dawes would have no vote on the question of the senate rules, since under the constitution, the senate alone has authority to determine its procedure. While designated as presiding officer of the senate the authority of the Vice President has always been limited to the making of parliamentary ruling and the casting of a vote only in the event of a tie.

A marked falling off of diphtheria victims was revealed. Of 105 cultures examined, only 19 positives were discovered, as compared with 86 negatives.

Rabies examinations showed a high ratio of positives, however, there being eight positives out of eleven examinations.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 5—Bishop William B. Murrah of the Methodist Episcopal church South, died here early today following a paralytic stroke in January last year, which was aggravated by a fall from a chair in his home several days ago.

The end came unexpectedly, following a sudden turn for the worse shortly after midnight.

Courteous, affable, dignified and scholarly in his bearing, Bishop Murrah exemplified the highest ideals of a gentleman of the old Southern type. As a result of his clear thinking and deliberate judgment, his counsel was much sought by leaders of the South.

He was regarded as a safe and wise counsellor and progressive in his thinking and his utterances.

Bishop Murrah, up to the time he was stricken, had supervision of the Alabama, North Alabama and North Georgia conferences, three of the largest in the church.

During the 1918 to 22 quadrennial he was president of three conferences in Missouri and the Denver conference.

At one time during his service as bishop, he was in charge of missions in the Orient and made several trips to Methodist fields in the far east.

Bishop Murrah was born at Pickensville, Ala., in 1853. He received his preparatory education in the high schools and graduated from Southern University, Greensboro, Ala., with the degree of A. B.

He was licensed to preach in 1874 at Greensboro and joined the North Mississippi conference. He was among the last of the elder statesmen of the church. Bishop Murrah was married in 1881 to Miss Beulah Fitzgerald of Oxford, Miss. Mrs. Murrah and a son, W. F. Murrah of Memphis survive.

ERROR IN RECORD

Erroneous Paragraph
Told of Confirmation
Of Charles Warren

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 5—When the inauguration flurry had subsided today it was noted a number of senators sat back to complacently read the congressional record and then arose in great haste and dashed to telephones.

The cause of their agitation was found to be an erroneous paragraph in the Congressional Record, which declares Charles Warren, of Michigan over whose nomination as attorney general, a hot fight had been waged had been confirmed.

Some senators, still somewhat touchy over their experience yesterday with vice president Dawes, thought maybe in the last minute confusion something had been put over on them. They were told the usually accurate Record had made a mistake which would be corrected.

More Than Hundred Thousand Girls Now Using G. F. P.

Hardly Believable That a Medicine Practically Unheard Of Only a Short Time Ago Should Become So Popular in Such a Short Time.

The unprecedented results G. F. P. is producing for many hundreds of girls and women who are using it, after they had failed to get relief during years of experimenting with first one thing, then another, is spreading like wild-fire to every town, village and hamlet all over this part of the country.

The overwhelming publicity which St. Joseph's G. F. P. is getting on account of the remarkable and almost miraculous things it is doing is responsible for the widespread popularity of this wonderful medicine. But the word of mouth endorsement given it by the girls and women whom it has helped shows the heartfelt gratitude which these unfortunate ones are heaping on G. F. P. for showing them the way to happiness and good health once again.

"The most biased person cannot doubt that St. Joseph's G. F. P. is a medicine of unquestioned merit in overcoming and stamping out the malady for which it is intended," said a well-known woman as she watched the number of orders and inquiries which are coming in from many cities for this wonderful medicine.—Adv.

The trial which has become famous as the "shortage trial," had been in progress for the past nine days. The jury returned the verdict after deliberating about four hours, reaching its decision at 7:30 last night.

How to Solve Puzzle.

The best way to solve this cross-word puzzle is to run over the list of horizontal and vertical synonyms in search of evidence or "easy" words. If horizontal, the word you are looking for must extend crosswise from the number to the first shaded stop on the right; if vertical, it must extend downward from the number to the first shaded stop below. When finished, the words should read equally well crosswise and downward.

GROWTH OF SALVATION ARMY POSTS REVEALED IN REPORT

A report just received by Captain Kearns in charge of the local corps of the Salvation Army describes the growth of the organization throughout the world during 1924 and lays particular emphasis upon the rapid spread of its missionary work in many distant fields.

The report has been prepared at the national headquarters, in New York City, for distribution among all officers in connection with the Diamond Jubilee observance of The Army which occurs this year. Founded in 1865 as a small mission in the East End of London, the organization is now sixty years of age. In spite of this short span of existence, The Army Flag now flies in eighty countries and colonies and its religious and social service activities are conducted in fifty-five languages and dialects.

The missionary work, maintained almost entirely by an annual on the part of Salvationists throughout the world, which occurs this year in the Eastern Territory of the United States from March 29th to April 5th represents one of the greatest advances of the year. This work is flourishing now in 4,174 centers in ten widely separated fields of activity, under the supervision of 2,750 commissioned officers who have dedicated their lives to consecrate work far from their own homes.

In addition to the evangelical work The Army program includes industrial schools for native boys and girls, homes for lepers and tuberculosis, hospitals, shelters, food depots, prisoner-aid service, emergency relief stations, rescue work among native girls, agricultural schools and a score of other social service and educational activities.

The largest Army missionary program is carried on in India, where there are 1,381 commissioned officers many of them of American origin, at work in 3,334 centers in all parts of that vast country which in itself has been divided into five complete territories for purposes of administration. Widespread floods in South India during the year also in China, taxed all the resources of the officers and called for large grants of money from the International Self-Denial Fund.

The next largest field is Japan where there are 292 officers in 120 centers of activity and then comes China, with 218 officers in 62 centers. The other fields are represented in the report as follows:

Ceylon, 167 officers in 150 centers; Dutch East Indies, 164 officers in 120 centers; Korea, 182 officers in 157 centers; South Africa, 185 officers in 150 centers; South America, 118 officers in 62 centers; Nigeria, 33 officers in 12 centers; and Kenya in Central Africa 10 officers in 7 centers.

In all these fields the commissioned officers are assisted by large numbers of native non-commissioned officers who are especially trained for the work.

Decatur Council To Meet Tonight

The Decatur city council will meet Thursday evening at the city hall. In addition to hearing the reports of officers and transacting the other routine business, it is expected the council will take up the ordinances providing for an election on a bond issue for the Tennessee river bridge.

An order for 650 new cars has been placed by the Louisville and Nashville. Work on the cars will be started in the local shops soon.

The Decatur now boast of the first "Woodrow Wilson baby." The youngster's name is Joseph Woodrow Wilson Spielberger. He was born at 10:45 Tuesday morning just ten minutes after the new president took his oath of office.

M. Webb Offutt, assistant manager of the Alabama Power company, was here yesterday.

Thomas J. Jones will arrive here the first of next week to accept a place with the Decatur Ice and Coal company.

R. T. Aylor is confined to his home of illness.

The DeMolay commandery meets in regular convocation tonight for inspection by Dr. H. L. Ison, of Gadsden, grand captain general of the grand commandery of Alabama.

Twenty-five cent cotton helps.

Dawes lost little time in setting off the verbal pyrotechnics.

March came in like a lion and a local wit celebrated the occasion by calling his coal dealer and ordering "another lion tamer."

This Office Cat is a terrible animal. He suggests that he be made to read: "The Follies of the American Girl," glorifying Ziegfeld.

More Limestone county districts are calling elections to permit the people to vote an additional tax rate for their schools. The rural sections of North Alabama are determined to keep up with the educational procession.

The superior court at Zumpango, state of Mexico, has a clean calendar. "Couldn't we send a few commercial missionaries down there to teach them how to clutter up their courts."

The annual report of the American Telephone and Telegraph company was made public Thursday. The report shows that there is one Bell-owned or Bell-connecting telephone station for each seven of the total population of the United States. At the end of the year there were 1,242,318 Bell-owned stations and 4,664,232 Bell-connecting stations. It seems the nation is quite conversational.

Well, here comes a pat on the back for Uncle Sam, which is unusual enough. "In two fields of international endeavor," says Dr. Russell T. Uhl, who has just returned to America after several years in Russia as medical director of the Near East for Russian Armenia, "the United States sets the standard for the world. The American dollar is today the world-wide measurement of things economics; and American ideals have similarly become the standard measurement of things philanthropic."

YOUR INCOME TAX

Partnerships as such are not subject to the income tax, but are required to make returns on Form 1065 showing gross and net income. The net income of a partnership is computed in the same manner and on the same basis as the net income of an individual, except that deductions for contributions or gifts are not permitted.

Individual members are taxed on the distributive shares of a partnership, whether distributed or not, and are required to include such shares in the individual return of income, though they may not have been actually received.

Every partnership must make a return regardless of the amount of its net income, or even if it has no net income. The return must show the name and address of each partner and the amount of the distributive share of the net income, if any, of each. Any one of the partners may sign and swear to the return, which may cover the calendar or fiscal year, according to the firm's method of accounting.

Where the result of a partnership operation is a net loss, the loss is divisible by the taxpayer in the same proportion as net income would have been divisible and may be taken by the partners in their individual returns of income. However, if the partnership agreement provides for the division of a loss in a manner different from the division of a gain such proportionate losses may be deducted by the partners as so agreed.

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE COMPLETES 75 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE SOUTH

The Louisville and Nashville railroad today completed its 75th year of service to the people of the South. It is a long way from the small engines and uncomfortable coaches of its early days to the huge moguls and the palatial passenger cars of today, but always the Louisville and Nashville has sought to give to the people it serves the best in locomotive accommodation and it was but natural that the road should not only keep abreast of progressive development of railroad service, but that it should be a pace-maker.

On the occasion of the completion of their 75th year of existence, the people of the entire South will join with those communities traversed by the Louisville and Nashville in wishing for the road many more years of profitable growth and expansion.

Three quarters of a century ago, on March 5, 1850, the governor of Kentucky affixed his signature to the charter which made the Louisville and Nashville a "going concern." The authorized capital was but $3,000,000 and the road's booklet suggests that it is doubtful that the early promoters had in mind extending the property farther than the short distance of 185 miles between the two cities, whose name it bears.

The dreams of these hardy pioneers in Southern development were more than realized. Not only were the lines of the road extended between Louisville and Nashville, but today the Louisville and Nashville railroad system comprises more than 5,000 miles of track, serves 14 great states and practically every population and trade center in the south.

Such growth can be attributed only to two causes, the development of the Southern section, and the expansion of the rail system on a basis of service to that section.

"The Old Reliable," the road is called affectionately by the South. The name fits well.

STONE MOUNTAIN MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION SETS FORTH ITS GRIEVANCE AGAINST SCULPTOR

If each of us who is interested in the completion at Stone Mountain of the memorial to the Southern heroes, had read with deeper consideration the interviews which Gutzon Borglum gave to the press in the past few months, we would have realized that something was radically wrong with the relations existing between the sculptor and the memorial association. Few of us did read these interviews with the consideration which would have revealed the hidden meanings between the lines, and, as a consequence, we were totally unprepared for the severance of the relations between Borglum and the association, with the resultant court proceedings.

It was a shock to be informed that not only had the sculptor been dismissed by the association, but that he had destroyed his models for the memorial figures and that the association found it necessary to go into court about the matter.

The association, realizing that the public, at least in the South, would want to know the reasons they saw fit to cancel their contract with the sculptor, has mailed out copies of the resolution adopted by the executive board of the organization. The resolution is an extended one and traces the history of the entire memorial movement and the relation Borglum bore to it. It sets up that the association had a legal right to cancel the contract and gives, in details, the reasons which convinced the board such cancellation would be the proper course.

The resolution asserts that the present management took charge of the work in April, 1923, and raised about $500,000. Large sums were paid Borglum for his work, the association says, and then congress was persuaded to pass a law permitting the mintage of five million half dollars, which were to be sold by the association as a premium. Mr. Borglum was to have provided a design for the coins. The Treasury department failed to approve the design submitted for the obverse side of the coin, and made some changes in it. Mr. Borglum was said to have referred to the changes suggested by the Fine Arts Commission contemptuously as "dam fool suggestions."

Borglum is blamed by the resolutions for a delay in getting the coins marketed. He is accused of having been absent from Stone Mountain a great part of his time, slowing up the work on that project. He is accused of having demanded pay for the coin design, but that demand the association did not meet.

The resolution further asserts:

After the association had finally succeeded in getting the coin design accepted, the said Borglum was requested to return to Stone Mountain and give his attention to the performance of his contract. Instead of doing so, the said Borglum served a written notice on the association, early in December, 1924, that he was going to quit the work at Stone Mountain and abandon his contract unless the association paid him $40,000 or thereabouts, by 6 o'clock of the following day. The association's books and reports from its consulting engineer showed that Borglum, then, as now, was heavily in arrears in the performance of his contract, and that the association owed him nothing, but that under the contract the said Borglum owed the association something like $40,000, should the association see fit to enforce the contract in strict accordance with its provisions. Therefore, the Association refused to comply with the said Borglum's demand and advised him that it was willing for him to quit the work. He thereupon changed his mind and agreed to go on with the work and to arbitrate his claim of money due him. The association appointed an arbitrator and was ready to proceed, but the said Borglum took no steps to carry out the arbitration, and subsequently repudiated even his agreement to have an arbitration.

Since that time the acts and conduct of the said Borglum have been contrary to the interests of this association in many respects. He has given little or no attention to his work. He has gone outside of the state for long periods. He has sought every opportunity to exploit himself and to discredit the association, in the newspapers and public speeches. Although able to raise little or no money himself, he has publicly charged that the association was without funds, and that the burden of financing the memorial had fallen upon his shoulders. His whole attitude has been that of attempting to control the functions of the association and of finding fault with practically every step it has taken.

It is a great pity that this great memorial effort, in which the affection and respect of the Southern people for their valorous soldiers is so closely bound, could not have proceeded to successful conclusion without those who are responsible for it losing their spirit of friendliness.

Gutzon Borglum is a great sculptor and it would have been a fine thing for him to have completed the memorial, but there are other great sculptors, and the association may be depended upon to find one great enough to complete the memorial on Stone Mountain.

Moulton News

A case of unusual interest came up before the county court presided over by Judge W. R. Jackson, Wednesday. Suit had been brought against Jake Elafare Armstrong by officials of the Alabama Forest Reservation for alleged burning off of government land in the forest. It was claimed that the fire originated around a still discovered in the mountains, and, though evidence was almost wholly circumstantial the witnesses made such a good case that the jury returned a verdict of guilty and fine of twenty-five dollars with costs was imposed. The case was interesting because it was the first forestry case that had gone before the county court and a jury. The teachers in the county high school gave their classes opportunity to hear the trial which was listened to by a number of citizens.

Other cases of interest coming before the court were several for alleged violation of the school attendance law; one man who, it was claimed, had not sent his children to his school, the Union Hill school, pleaded guilty and was fined; the other cases were continued due to absence of the defendants who sent certificates from a physician stating they were physically unable to be present.

The many friends of Miss Ruth Stewart, formerly a teacher in Lawrence county, and for many years a resident in Moulton were grieved to hear of her death near Handford, California, which occurred Saturday, where she has been in a sanitarium for the past several months.

Simple Way To End Night Coughing

No matter how long you have been troubled with exasperating coughing at night, robbing you of valuable sleep and thereby weakening your system and laying you open to dangerous infections, it can usually be stopped at once by a very simple treatment. Most people have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed after the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and almost every throat irritation. It contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Facts about Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during expectancy, as well as a child-birth is entirely unnecessary.
A eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend,"
which aids the muscles
and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.
"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant
mothers have used it.
"Pains disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user.
"I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared
another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did, start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

JAMES DUNCAN MEMORIAL CIRCLE HOLDS MEETING

The James A. Duncan Memorial Circle met in regular session at three o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Methodist church, Decatur. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. W. T. Lowe, and upon roll call by the secretary, Mrs. L. O. Stout twenty members were found to be present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Arwin Draper.

This was the regular monthly business meeting of the circle, which has been divided into three divisions, with the following appointed as chairmen:
First division, Mrs. E. E. Peden, second division, Mrs. C. W. Rush and third division, Mrs. E. E. Hargrove.
For the purpose of raising funds to further the plans and purposes of the Circle, it had been agreed at a former meeting that a sales campaign be conducted, Mrs. Russell Green having been named chairman. Good progress was reported.

All plans for maintaining a scholarship in Laura Haygood school in Soochow, China, of which Louise Robertson, local girl is principal were contemplated. The circle entered enthusiastically into the splendid undertaking. This is to be known as the James
A. Duncan scholarship.

TUESDAY WHIST CLUB

Miss Christine Almon was a delightful hostess of Tuesday when her guests were the members of the Tuesday Whist Club, Mrs. Leroy McEntire
and Mrs. R. E. Jones of Jacksonville, Fla., who is a visitor in the Almon
home.

At the club game, Miss Helen Russell made highest score and received the club prize after which lovely refreshments were served.

MOTHERS CLUB MEETS

Each meeting of the Mothers Club seems to be a bit more interesting than the previous one and that held on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs.
Frank Lide was hostess proved no exception to this rule. Her attractive home on Grant street was unusually so on this occasion when jonquils and sweet peas were used in profusion.

Child Culture has been studied in several phases during the year and "Vocations" was the division studied at this meeting. The opening paper was read by Mrs. W. P. Baugh and her subject was "necessary Chart for boy or girl by which to still life's voyage of discovery." Mrs. Warren Gar-rendered "Souvenir" in a pleasing interpretation. "The Boy and his career; selecting the vocation" was the subject very ably handled by Mrs.
R. M. McGlathery. A short sketch of Frank L. Stanton was given by Mrs.
Russell Speake who was personally acquainted with his family. She rendered a group of his songs including
"Mighty Lak a Rose" and "Just A Wearyin' for You." Another violin solo "Woing Winds" was given by Mrs. Gardner. The program closed with a short summing up by Mrs.
Russell Speake and she told of personal adaption, preference, health, service and special training as a basis of vocational success.

A charlotte russe course was served by Mrs. Lide late in the afternoon.
Mrs. E. C. Price was taken in as a new member at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pfaff and daughter Mary Alma left Wednesday for a visit to friends in Mobile, New Orleans La., and Dallas, Texas and from the latter city they will go to the Rio Grande Valley to spend the remainder of the winter.

Miss Pearl Smith of Florence is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Putnam visited her mother, Mrs. M. L. Staggs in the Tri-Cities this week.

Mrs. D. C. Almon returned Tuesday
from Nashville, Tenn. where she visited her daughter, Mrs. T. H. Alexander and Mr. Alexander.

Mrs. M. E. Griggs has returned home after a visit to relatives and friends in Nashville Tenn.

Mrs. A. L. Moye is in Evergreen, Alabama where she has been called to the bedside of her father, W. A.
Boutwell who is in a serious condition following a stroke of paralysis.

MRS. KINGSBURY CLUB HOSTESS

The Cotaco Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. E. P. Kingsbury on Wednesday afternoon and a profusion of jonquils were tastefully arranged in the living and dining rooms.

The club was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. T. Nelson and a short business session held, after which Mrs. W. B. Robertson leader for the afternoon took charge of the program, "Great Women of the South" was the subject and was made quite interesting by Mrs. Robertson in her characteristic manner and she was assisted by Mrs. C. D. McQuary, who gave a sketch of Howard Weeden and short reading by her; Mrs. Elmer Bussey pleased her hearers with interesting events in the life of Augusta Evans Wilson, while Mrs. Thomas Hodson took Marian Harlan her life and works as the subject for a short talk. The program was concluded with a round table discussion when many great women of the South were brought to notice.

A tempting plate luncheon was served by the hostess and her two daughters assisted by Mrs. J. D. Bush and a social hour indulged in.

FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR MR. AND MRS. E. F. BAIRD

The Westminster Presbyterian church was the scene of a most beautiful reception on Wednesday evening that was given in honor of Mr.
and Mrs. E. F. Baird, popular members of the congregation who will leave soon to make their home in a distant city. The church was very prettily decorated with Jackson vine
and bright jonquils added the needed touch of color.

The following program was rendered; violin solo by Mrs. Harry Wyatt, solo, Mrs. E. C. Payne, male quartette numbers by Messrs. Bogges, Henry Davis, J. M. H. Field and Gil Cratic, speech by Rev. L. F. Goodier, talk by Mr. Layman, reading by Henry Hartung.

Later a most delightful social hour
was enjoyed by the two hundred present with the guests of honor, and refreshments were passed. The president of the ladies Aid Society in a very fitting speech presented Mr. and Mrs. Baird a pair of silver candlesticks as a token of their love and esteem in which they were held by the members of the society.

Regret was expressed by all present on the loss of two such valued members but good wishes for them
in their new home were extended them.
Mr. Baird was a faithful officer while Mrs. Baird was very active at the women's activities and they will be greatly missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss G. Putnam
and their niece Miss Sherman Staggs returned this week from a motor tour of Florida. They have been absent from the Twin Cities for four months and they visited many points of interest including St. Petersburg and Palm Beach. En route home they visited several cities of Georgia and Stone Mountain.

ROBBED AT CAMP

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Putnam, who have just returned from a motor trip to Florida, suffered the loss of a number of valuables last Saturday night when they were robbed at a tourist camp in Macon, Ga. The thieves took a suitcase, several articles of clothing and some jewelry.

BIRTH

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Doyle
an 8-4 pound boy on March 4th.

Pity a bachelor. A waiter in making out his check, asked whether he had coffee or hot chocolate. The customer, with great dignity, replied that he wasn't sure but that it tasted like paste.

Serenity settled upon the waiter's
brow. "That was coffee," he said,
"the chocolate tastes like glue."

BOBBED HAIR looks wonderful with

Many Uses For Vicks In the Home

First As An Effective "Outside"
Remedy for Colds, Then as a
Liniment Or Poultice

Vicks of course is primarily intended as an external treatment for cold troubles, and as such has gained world wide fame.

Actual use however, by many persons has demonstrated that it is also an excellent application for many of the daily ills and hurts of the family.

For headache an aneurgia you rub
the forehead and temples with Vicks,
also melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors.

For burns and scalds apply Vicks as a thick dressing—cover with a light cloth. Apply gently—do not rub in.

For cuts, scratches, bites you cleanse
first with warm water then apply
Vicks as a salve.

For colds you just rub Vicks over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel. When applied at night
the trouble is usually gone by morning.—Advt.

ARE YOU COMMITTING THIS CRIME AGAINST YOUR HEALTH?

An enormous number of people are weak, nervous and ailing, always complaining and doctoring, simply because they have committed the great American crime against their health—because while indoor life, overwork and improper diet have exhausted the iron from their blood, making it thin, pale and watery,
they have made no effort to replace this iron which the blood must have to keep them well
and strong.

You can easily determine whether you have been committing this health crime. You can get more iron by eating plenty of spinach, lentils and green vegetables. But doctors always advise people who are anaemic, weak, nervous and run-down to take iron in concentrated form—organic iron. Nuxated Iron is organic iron like the iron in your own blood
and like that in spinach and green vegetables.
It is entirely different from the mineral iron used in the past, for it is readily assimilated
and so acts much more quickly and surely.
Besides, it doesn't injure the teeth or disturb the stomach. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be equal to eating half a quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen baked apples. Millions of people have used it to quickly help make rich red blood, and give increased strength, energy and endurance.

Make this convincing test—Get Nuxated
Iron today and take it for only two weeks. You will notice a marvelous improvement in health and strength, or your money will be refunded.

Retired Minister Tells How He Keeps in Good Form With the Assistance of Black-Draught.

West Graham, Va.—The Rev. Lewis Evans, a well-known retired minister, now past 60, living here, has a high opinion of Black-Draught, which he says he has taken when needed, for 25 years. "For years I had been suffering with my liver," he says, "Sometimes the pain would be very intense and my back would hurt all the time. Black-Draught was the first thing I found that would give me any relief."

"My liver has always been sluggish. Sometimes it gives me a lot of trouble. I have suffered a lot with it—pains in my side and back, and bad headache, caused from extreme biliousness."

"After I found Black-Draught, I would begin to take it as soon as I felt a spell coming on and it relieved the cause at once. I can recommend it to anybody suffering from liver trouble. A dose or two now and then keeps me in good form."

Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for a tired, lazy liver. NC-166

Carolínians Attribute Victory To the Use of Prayer; Practice in Many Colleges

The University of North Carolina just returned to their native haunts at Chapel Hill attribute their victory mainly to the use of prayer. This is the opinion of Coach "Monk" McDonald of Carolina and All Southern quint fame. The quintette that has been returned champion for the past three of four years in the southern tournament holds a prayer service before going into play. This does not mean that they indulge in the practice for the sake of winning the game but a prayer that none of the players on either team may be hurt or injured.

This practice is not confined alone to the University of North Carolina. It has been adopted by a number of colleges, although Center College was the first to gain the name of the "Praying" Colonels. Church institutional colleges and some state and independent universities have put this form in practice, always a prayer that no serious injuries occur to the participants of either team.

It is a fine thing that the young men of the country in the full bloom of health and with their minds naturally far away from the spiritual, as they go on the gridiron, the diamond on the court, or in the shells to stop for the moment to pause in reverent thought, to realize that after all their entire being depends upon a will that they can have no power over.

Eugene Criqui, the man with the paper jaw, the French hero who lost a part of his face when hit by flying German shell is going to return to the ring despite his defeat by Danny Frush some weeks ago. Criqui fought and lost to a man who is considered in America as a second-rater.

Criqui gained the world feather-weight championship and within three weeks had lost it again. He is one of the gamest little fighters that dons the padded mitt today, a true sportsman, and a man who does not know the meaning of fear and defeat.

The baseball committee composed of A. L. McCauley, S. E. Arvidson, Himes Wilkes and Strane will gather at an early date with B. L. Malone to discuss plans for the coming baseball season scheduled to open on May 1st at Malone Park.

The grounds of the park need a great deal of work done on them before the respective lineups of the city league entries can take their stations for the first games of the local season.

Indications at the present time are that one of the fastest circuits that has been seen here since the days of the old Y. M. C. A.-Southern Bell fight will be in full swing this year. The managers and officials of various organizations are signing men at the present time and practice will begin at an early date.

It is understood that the Independent organization now being planned by the Benefit Association of Railway Employees has already been out to practice. The men realize that if the organization is perfected and the schedule played that they have their work cut out for a very busy summer in diamond circles. Should the organization receive approval, games will be played in Chicago, Evansville, Nashville, Birmingham and Montgomery.

Quentin Romano will remain outside the roped arena for the next thirty days mainly because his second lost his temper and playfully tossed a bucket in the general direction of Quentin's opponent scoring a direct hit. Quentin's opponent was no more for the next ten minutes and the fighter is to remain idle for a whole month. It seems that Quentin's opponent, Dan O'Connell, dropper to the 'asin in a 'scen. bout and his seconds jumped up to fight some more, then Quentin's ally lost his head and decorated the dome of Danny with a bucket. Danny remained in a reclining position for a full ten minutes.

BEAR CATS VICTORIOUS OVER
DORMITORY BY THREE POINTS

Bear Cats again came out victors in bowling at the Y. M. C. A. last night. They took the heavy end against the "Y" Dormitory, making three points.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: Last Summer I was in love with a man and he said he loved me. But for some reason he broke a date with me. Since then as much as I loved him and still love him, I would not let him come back. I have heard he told a lot of falsehoods about me. He still asks me to come back. Should I let him?

DIMPLES: A man who will tell falsehoods about you is not worth, of your friendship. Dimples, and certainly not of your love.

Don't waste any time even thinking about him. ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a girl of eighteen and have never gone out with a man but once.

I am now in love with a man twice my age. He seems to care a lot for me, but he cares just as much for other girls. Please tell me what to do.

SUNSHINE: There isn't anything you can do, Sunshine, except to be your own self. It seems to be hardly worth while to go out of your way to cultivate the friendship of a man who is so much older than you are, and with whom you can have very little in common.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: There has been a man going with me for about six months. I think a lot of him and he seems to like me. But there are parties and other places to go to through the week and unless he takes me, I cannot go. Will you kindly tell me whether there is any harm in his coming to see me on Sunday and Wednesday nights?

MAXINE: Your mother is quite right, Maxine, in not allowing you to go out with one man so often. The best way to get tired of a man is to see him so often.

If you want to attend some of these parties and functions with him, then substitute them for your Sunday date. That's a good way to solve your problem.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young man in my teens. I am attracted by a charming young lady of my own age. She seems to like me very well and we are friends. I am very anxious to visit her. Shall I ask her to allow me to call, or should I accompany her to an outing? UNDECIDED.

UNDECIDED: Do both. Ask the young lady whether you may call and at the same time, ask her to consent to accompany you.
